Provide a Meal for Someone

Acts 2:45-46 says, <sup>45</sup> And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. <sup>46</sup> And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts...

We often wait until someone is in tragedy or experiences significant life change to provide a meal for them. However, providing a meal for someone can be a practice of loving generosity any time.

Try listening for and noticing opportunities to bless someone with a meal – a busy day, a crowded week, a stressful decision, a day of celebration, etc. – any of these could be a chance to provide gift cards or a home-cooked meal for someone, showing the same kind of generosity that God shows us in Jesus.

Consider including a thoughtful note or hand-written prayer to show them that they are seen and loved.
