

Work Journal

We are created for work. One of the greatest ways we can incorporate our faith into all of our lives and grow to become fully devoted followers of Jesus, is through working with his kingdom in mind.

Jesus taught us to pray “Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven” (Matthew 6:10). As you work, look for ways you contribute to this mission. How do you see God’s kingdom coming and his will being done on earth as it is in heaven through your work? Use this exercise to journal the things you notice.

Here are some questions you may ask yourself:

- What gifts has God given you?
- What spaces has he placed you in?
- How can you uniquely represent and expand God’s kingdom?
- What product does your work contribute to?
- Who is being positively affected by your character at work?
- Whose lives are being positively affected by the nature of your work?

Here are some examples of things you might notice:

- God has uniquely gifted me with the capacity and talent for the role I’m in.
- I am in a position to impact the lives of others through my leadership.
- I can see others in my office come to faith through my life and witness.
- I can make a difference in my community because of what my work creates.
- My co-worker is asking why I am different than others in the office.
- What I do is making it possible for others to make the world a better place.
